A Step towards achieving Career Excellence....

St. Ann's P.G. College for Women, a Christian Minority Institution was established in the year 2003. The College offers Post graduate (MBA) credit-based semester programmes affiliated to Osmania University and Approved by AICTE. The 9-acre serene campus is situated on the Mallapur - NFC road in close proximity to PSUs and Industrial estates. The College is run by the Society of Sisters of St. Ann of Providence, the name that has been associated with excellence in education, for many decades. It has a number of Educational Institutions at different levels imparting quality education to lakhs of students throughout India.

The College aims at providing integral, value-based, skill-oriented, quality-focused, and sustainable education in an environment of integrated, interactive and experiential learning. The Institution has adopted the pedagogy of the heart to empower students by understanding their deepest needs and accompanying them in realizing their potential for growth and development.

VISION

To provide integral, value based and quality oriented Higher Education that transforms and empowers young Annites into competent personalities, morally upright, emotionally balanced, and socially responsible.

MISSION

ANNITE CULTURE

The Annite culture is distinct. Our motto “Pursue Truth” is at the core of our culture where students are taught to practice honesty in academics as well as in everyday life as the College strives for the intellectual, ethical, cultural, social and physical development of the students. Discipline is an internal part of Annite culture which keeps students focused on achieving their goals. The students are taught not only to adhere to regularity, obedience, courtesy and cleanliness but also have the academic freedom to express their views and opinions. The teaching methodology emphasizes on participative experiential and problem solving learning that prepares them for the competitive world.

Annite culture makes a difference to every student who joins the institution through various club activities, celebrations, competitions and events young Annites are equipped to pay on the challenges of a dynamic future. St. Ann’s empowers students through the “pedagogy of the heart” by reaching out to understand the needs of students, supporting them in their growth and unlocking the developing the potentials thus incarnating Gandhi’s Visions of education –

“Involving the Head,
Heart and Hand – heralding a new dawn”.

The campus is situated in a vibrant lush green pollution-free environment, carefully cultivated gardens on a serene ambience with excellent infrastructure, the entire campus is Wi-Fi enabled.
